 - Passenger boards an LE Vehicle without a valid Fare Certificate. In this case, he may only board an LE Vehicle if he first asks the Authorized Person whether a Ticket with Seat Reservation can be bought for the given train.  - in case of carriage of a person for payment or free of charge on connections, where Departure and Destination Station are in two different member states of COTIF from May 9th, 1980 published in the Czech Republic in Collection of International Agreements by Public Notice on Ministry of Foreign No. Affairs 49/2006 Coll., Passenger accepts the LE offer and receives a Ticket in return.

- Entitlement to a reserved seat is extinguished if, according to the ticket, the relevant passenger does not occupy the seat for the entire journey (with the exception of the use of another station in the territory of Prague or Ostrava within the given route). For this purpose, occupancy is not considered if the passenger places a piece of clothing or hand baggage on the seat.
